<input type="checkbox"/>	New media and the Church; Using the internet as a means of outreach, evangelism and beyond In today's technology driven age people looking for a church are no longer going to a yellow page ad or a listing in the newspaper, they are going to the Internet. If your church does not have an active presence on the internet, you are missing out on many opportunities to reach people for Christ, as well as an effective means of communication with the people already involved in your church. In this class we will discuss how to create an effective Website, How to get your Church on Face book and Google+, and the importance of all this to your ministry. _Rev. Keith Bodwell will be the facilitator for this class, pastor of Northway Presbyterian
<input type="checkbox"/>	The rhythm of Worship: Revelation &amp; Response From the beginning God created us for community, revealing himself by calling a people into covenant. In worship the people of God respond with words and deeds of praise. Our workshop will explore how worship is 'our faithful response to God's gracious revelation', and how to move from passivity (observing) to participation (experiencing). Rev. Taylor Camerer will be the facilitator for this class, he is the pastor of Great Island Presbyterian.
